Margaret River Wines

Lefthanders Sauvignon Blanc Semillon 2019

Bunkers celebrates some of Margaret River's greatest surf breaks. The region is a magnet for both wine lovers and surfers from all over the world.

Not for the faint-hearted, the Lefthanders break is a blend of big unpredictable swells with a jagged, rocky finish. The wine of the same name will treat you a lot more kindly. Raise your left hand and savour the freshness and intensity of this crisp Margaret River gem. Goofy footer!

If you want to find out more, carry on reading. If not, just twist the cap and enjoy!

WINEMAKER'S NOTE: A classic blend from Margaret River - pale green in colour, with aromas of succulent Sauvignon Blanc and Semillon. The palate is flint dry, with an explosive first impact of racy fruit, creamy middle palate with a fine and lengthy finish.

VINTAGE: A fine vintage for whites from Margaret River.

VINEYARDS: Our vineyards are in northern Margaret River with soils of mostly fine clay loams over ironstone. All vines are vertically shoot positioned and run in north south aspect.

VINIFICATION: Harvested in early morning, crushed grapes were juice-extracted to a bright condition and cold fermented in stainless steel, then early bottled to retain varietal character.
